

JOIN CONGRESSMAN JOHN ADLER

AT A LOCAL ECONOMIC SMALL BUSINESS SUMMIT

Congressman John Adler (NJ-3) will host an economic summit this month to hear from local small business owners and constituents about ways to grow our economy. This forum will also provide the opportunity to connect local business owners with government organizations who will be available to answer questions and discuss valuable resources.

Panelists include:

- James Hughes, Dean of the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy
- US Small Business Administration
- NJ Economic Development Authority
- Kristi Howell-Ikeda, President of the Burlington County Chamber of Commerce
- Mark Remsa, Director of Burlington County Economic Development and Regional Planning

Thursday February 18, 2010

6:00pm—7:00pm

The Enterprise Center at Burlington County College (auditorium)
3331 Route 38 (between Hartford and Briggs Rd.)
Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054

PLEASE CALL CHARLIE AT (856) 985-2777 TO RSVP (ENCOURAGED BUT NOT REQUIRED)