Get Your Green Back

EXPOSURE

Market Your Company at Business Expo 2011

Why should your company exhibit in Business Expo 2011? Be part of the Chamber's efforts to "go green" at Business Expo 2011. This year, our theme is "Get Your Green Back" at the region's largest business to business trade show. Energy used at the day-long show will be matched by 100% wind RECS courtesy of Constellation Energy. This show offers the opportunity to highlight your company's sustainability programs, and efforts to reduce waste or use more green energy; or how your company can help others do so!

Business Expo also offers you an excellent marketing tool to expand and generate sales leads, promote your goods and services, develop vendor contacts and strengthen existing business relationships. For 24 years this show has been a huge success. More than 3,500 attendees are expected to walk through the show between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 6, 2011 at the Crowne Plaza. Get the edge on your competition and exhibit at Business Expo 2011!

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

GOVERNOR SIGNS PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS REFORM INTO LAW

On Wednesday, June 29 Governor Chris Christie signed into law legislation that will make much needed changes to the pension and health benefits of all public employees in the state, including State and local workers, as well as teachers and members of State authorities. The reform legislation was passed by the New Jersey Senate on June 20 and the General Assembly on June 23. The Chamber has been a longtime supporter of pension and benefits reform. In testimony to the Assembly Budget Committee on June 20, Executive Vice President and COO Kathleen Davis stated, "Our Chamber has been in the forefront calling for public employee benefits reforms since 2003 when we first sounded the alarm to members of both the Senate and Assembly Budget Committees over the fast growing cost of these benefits. In 2005 and 2006, the Chamber issued two of three reports of its Board Council on Responsible Government Spending, which focused on the fact that benefits for public employees were out of synch with those received in the private sector."

The Chamber thanks Governor Christie, Senate President Sweeney, Speaker Oliver, and Assemblymen Greenwald and O'Scanlon for their leadership and courage in taking on this issue and making real reform a priority.

GOVERNOR CHRISTIE VETOES MILLIONAIRE'S TAX

On June 30 Governor Chris Christie vetoed legislation passed by the New Jersey Senate and General Assembly on June 29 that would increase the tax on individuals with gross taxable income of over $1,000,000. The bills, S-2969 (Lesniak/Norcross/Greenstein) and A-4202 (McKeon/Riley/Spencer/Coutinho), would have created a temporary increase in the tax rate from 8.97% to 10.75% on income over $1,000,000. The legislation was retroactive to January 1, 2011 and would have expired on December 31, 2012, covering the 2011 and 2012 tax years. The bill would have excluded income from pensions, annuities and other retirement income in calculating the gross income of a taxpayer. The bill was tied to A-4203 (Greenwald), also passed on June 29, which provide additional state funding to school districts, including for those not considered "underperforming." Governor Christie also vetoed this bill on June 30.

In his veto message on the millionaire's tax Governor Christie stated: "For the second time in two years, the Legislature proposes a failed policy –raising income taxes on individuals and businesses within our State –as a solution to the years of reckless taxing and spending that created our current fiscal problems." Governor Christie also stated in a news release on the veto, "The proposed income tax hike would directly hurt small business and exacerbate the volatility of New Jersey's revenue base, considering that 71 percent of the taxpayers who pay the top tax rate under this legislation report income from business activity, and nearly 42 percent of the revenue subject to this tax increase represents business income."

The Chamber has also opposed this tax as it creates an additional tax on business to supplement additional spending. On Monday, June 20 NJBIZ published an op-ed piece written by Chamber Executive Vice President & COO Kathleen Davis, which stated that "the tax increase proposal would be harmful to the very sectors of the economy that have been our core strength and should be nurtured. It would also harm thousands of small businesses that pay their business taxes through the gross income tax."

GOVERNOR CHRISTIE EXERCISES LINE ITEM VETO IN DEMOCRATS' BUDGET

On June 30, Governor Christie exercised his authority to line item veto parts of the Democrats' budget. Just the day before, both the New Jersey Senate and General Assembly passed a $30.6 billion budget, some $1.19 billion higher than the Governor's proposed budget. The Democrats' budget bills, S-4000 (Sarlo) and A-4200 (Greenwald) increased spending, which was funded by the implementation of a millionaire's tax and more optimistic revenue estimates. The budget bills passed along party lines, with all Democrats supporting and all Republicans dissenting.

The $30.6 billion budget passed by the Legislature increased education funding by $816 million, including close to $86 million for "above adequacy" school districts; increased funding to municipalities for public safety spending; and expanded the Senior and Disabled Citizens' Property Tax Freeze, among other items. The budget also allocated $45 million to continue the earned-income tax credit and restored funding to continue operation of the Vineland Developmental Center.

In total, the Governor cut $900 million in spending from the budget bills, but included an increase from his original budget in state aid to schools ($250 million for all school districts; $450 million to Abbott districts, and $150 million for non-Abbott districts); doubled the Homestead Benefit and increased benefits under the Senior and Disabled Property Tax Freeze program; and increased funding to hospitals by $20 million, among other spending increases. The Governor's budget message reduced, deleted or revised language related to more than 100 items in the State budget.

GOVERNOR CHRISTIE SIGNS
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE TAX RELIEF INTO LAW

On June 30, Governor Christie signed into law legislation that will provide tax relief for New Jersey business owners on their unemployment insurance rates. The legislation makes two important changes that will mitigate future UI tax increases. First, they phase in over three years the Unemployment Insurance tax increase. As a result, the tax increase that is due to go into effect July 1, 2011 will be based upon tax rates contained in schedule D (instead of schedule E). Starting in 2012, rates will be based upon schedule E, without the ten percent surcharge, and in 2013 the ten percent surcharge will go into effect. Without these changes, employers were facing an increase of approximately $300 per employee per year. If signed into law, employers can expect to pay approximately an additional $100 - $130 per employee starting in July, as opposed to an additional $300 per employee. Second, the legislation sets the Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund reserve ratios at FY2003 levels once the fund is solvent, a change that will result in more stability in the UI tax rates. The Chamber commends Governor Christie for signing this legislation into law and Assemblyman Egan and

Senator Madden for sponsoring these bills and for the quick passage of this key legislation by both the General Assembly and the Senate. The Chamber will continue to support legislation that will help reduce the tax burden on businesses in New Jersey and create a better business climate in the state. - TESTIMONIAL -

“Big Sky could not be happier with the decision to partner with the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey less than a year ago. During that time we have developed fruitful strategic alliances, increased our brand awareness and found it easy to refer business because of the numerous organizations within the chamber. We view the Chamber of Commerce of Southern New Jersey as a key component to the growth of our business in the years to come.”

Not Getting the Best Guidance!

Signing up for e-mails (or tweets) that contain weight-loss advice can help you drop pounds, a new study reveals. When researchers from Canada sent diet and exercise advice to more than 1,000 working adults weekly, they discovered that the recipients boosted their physical activity and ate smarter. People who didn't receive the reminders didn't change.
