LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Governor Christie Presents Fiscal Year 2012 Budget Proposal

On February 22, Governor Christie presented a $29.4 billion budget proposal for Fiscal Year 2012 which cuts real spending by 2.6%, a reduction in government spending for the second consecutive year. His budget establishes priorities and funds those priorities based on revenue that is available and expected.

In his Budget Address, Governor Christie stated that, "Creating jobs is the top priority of this Administration, which is why tax cuts that help businesses grow and expand are a priority in the budget."

Governor Christie proposes the following changes:

- Double New Jersey's Research and Development Tax credit to encourage those in the high tech and bio-tech industries to craft their next great discovery;
- Allow for loss carry-forward relief for small businesses;
- Reduce the minimum S-corporation business tax by 25%;
- Exempt electronically delivered business software from the sales and use tax;
- Phase out the Technology Energy Facility Assessment;
- Raise the death tax exemption for families and small businesses, and;
- Increase funding for economic development programs.

The Governor also said the deficit attributed to Health and Pension Benefits for state and local employees will increase to $183 billion if there are no changes made to the current system and called for a resolution of the crisis by mid-March. The Chamber fully supports reform to the current system and has testified on many occasions over the past five years.

Other highlights of the Governor's proposal include increases in hospital funding by $20 million and education funding by $250 million.

The Chamber is pleased to support many aspects of the Governor's budget proposal and looks forward to working with him, his Administration and the Legislature to advance key

Chamber Supports Opportunity Scholarship Act

The Chamber submitted a statement in support of A-2810 (Fuentes/Schaer) to the Assembly Commerce and Economic Development Committee, which establishes a pilot program in the Department of Treasury providing tax credits to entities contributing to scholarships for low-income children.

It is widely recognized that New Jersey has among the highest spending per pupil costs in the country, with no corresponding educational improvement. The Opportunity Scholarship Act provides an option to the families of students in some of the lowest performing schools member of society and to better prepare for college or the workforce.

Businesses have a stake in the education of children—as it is their future workforce, and it is fitting that corporations be incentivized to invest in their future workforce by contributing to a Scholarship Organization.

The bill was released out of Committee by a vote of 5-0-1-0 (Yes, No, Not Voting, Abstain). Click Here to see the Chamber's full position paper on the issue.

Chamber Supports Regulation Reform

During the Assembly voting session on February 17, the Chamber submitted a desk letter in support of A-3766 (Burzichelli), which alters the 30 year old regulation of the State's telecommunications and cable services by eliminating duplicative and outdated requirements, yet retaining regulation of consumer protections, franchises, rights of way, and underground facility protections.

Both the telecommunications and cable industries have changed considerably in the 30 years since the enactment of the law which this bill amends. Technology that was once a novelty has become a necessity for business. And, businesses' ability to have access to this technology at affordable costs is essential to the ability to compete and keep prices lower through increased efficiencies provided by these technologies.

Companies regulated by the 1972 statute are restricted in their abilities to compete with their unregulated counterparts, and this bill takes that regulation into the twenty-first century. This bill was passed by the Assembly by a vote of 66-7-3-4 (Yes, No, Not voting, Abstain). Click here to view the Chamber's full position paper on this issue.

Wellness Tip

Drinking Soda

Researchers say you can measure a person's risk of obesity by measuring his or her soda intake. Versus people who don't drink sweetened sodas, here's what your daily intake means:

½ can = 26 percent increased risk of being overweight or obese

½ to 1 can = 30.4 percent increased risk

1 to 2 cans = 32.8 percent increased risk

More than 2 cans = 47.2 percent increased risk

That's a pretty remarkable set of stats. You don't have to guzzle Double Gulps from 7-Eleven to put yourself at risk—you just need to indulge in one or two cans a day. Wow. And because high-fructose corn syrup is so cheap, food marketers keep making serving sizes bigger (even the "small" at most movie theaters is enough to drown a raccoon). That means we're drinking more than ever and don't even realize it: In the 1950s, the average person drank 11 gallons of soda a year. By the mid-2000s, we were drinking 46 gallons a year. A Center for Science in the Public Interest report contained this shocking sentence: "Carbonated soft drinks are the single biggest source of calories in the American diet."

Bonus Tip: When it comes to making us fat, soda is only one of the big offenders. Other sugary drinks can add belly fat fast, too—so never imbibe anything on this shocking list of The 20 Worst Drinks in America. Otherwise you can be slurping more than an entire day's worth of calories, sugar and fat—in just a few minutes.
