

CHEMICAL PLANT OPERATOR

A fast growing chemical manufacturing plant is seeking operators to join our facility located in Conshohocken, PA. Individual must be a self starter, able to work with minimum direction and be a team player. Candidates must possess a good working knowledge of chemical plant operations.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Operator will assure all production activities are conducted in a safe, responsible and environmentally sound manner. Duties include:

- Maintaining, controlling and monitoring process equipment following standard operating procedures
- Troubleshooting process problems as necessary
- Taking samples, monitoring the results of the samples and taking corrective actions if necessary
- Recording process and production data
- Supporting supervisors and engineers to troubleshoot problems and enhance production, quality and safety
- Completing minor maintenance tasks such as cleaning equipment and changing piping.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Prior industrial manufacturing experience. An understanding of process controls, process flow and instrument diagrams
- Knowledge of typical industrial equipment, valves, pumps, pipe, filters and strainers, etc.
- Basic math and physics skills
- Familiar with use of lift equipment, fork trucks, etc
- Comply with Health, Safety and Environmental responsibilities for the position
- Work rotating shifts, including weekends

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE:

- High School Diploma
- 3 years manufacturing experience or a 2 year degree in a related field
- Chemical processing background

COMPENSATION:

Competitive Pay Depending on Experience

BENEFITS:

Medical, Dental, 401K and Supplemental Benefits